Catechism and Moral Instruction Committee

Our committee helps young adults find their purpose in life by teaching them important values from scriptures and everyday life. We work with dedicated faculty members to inspire students to become righteous, responsible, and thoughtful individuals.

Policies:

1. To impart spiritual and moral values
2. To Help students develop good character and behavior
3. To mentor students to make right choices
4. To emphasise the importance of emotional balance for a peaceful life
5. To Encourage students to be socially responsible and productive citizens

Practices :

1. Weekly classes on moral values and spirituality are conducted
2. Holy mass and orientation programs are organised at the commencement of each year.
3. Motivational talks and personal development programs are an integral part of the curriculum.
4. Spiritual retreats for Catholic students are arranged to inculcate ethics and moral values .
5. Competitions and in-house programs are conducted regularly to promote human values
6. Classroom activities like role-plays, videos, quizzes, debates, and games are organised to tap the innate potential of the students.
7. Programs to celebrate festivals and important days are held with great enthusiasm to help promote community spirit

Outcomes:

1. Students understand the mission and vision of the college
2. Students become self-aware, confident, and goal-oriented
3. Students learn about social responsibility, civic duties, and respecting diversity
4. Students develop positive habits and self-esteem
