Podhigai Tamil Sangam

The Tamil Literary Club was established with the goal of fostering a deep appreciation for Tamil literature and culture among students. The club provides a vibrant platform for members to explore, discuss, and celebrate the rich legacy of Tamil language and its literary works. By engaging students in activities that highlight the beauty of Tamil literature, the club aims to nurture a sense of pride and passion for the language while also encouraging creative expression.

Motto

"தமிழை வாசி, தமிழ் வழி வாழ்" (Read Tamil, Live by Tamil)

Policies

- The club is open to all students with a passion for Tamil literature, regardless of their proficiency level in the language.
- Regular meetings and literary events will be held after class hours to ensure maximum participation.
- Respectful and constructive discussions are encouraged, with all opinions valued equally.
- Members are expected to participate actively in events and contribute to the club's initiatives.
- Club resources, including books and electronic materials, are available exclusively to members and must be used responsibly.

Practices

- Literary Discussions: Regular sessions to discuss significant Tamil literary works, including Sangam poetry, epics, and contemporary literature.
- Guest Lectures: Inviting renowned Tamil writers, poets, and scholars to interact with students, providing insights into the world of Tamil literature.
